2. How do we do that properly?

Sermon Reflection Questions

To further engage your heart and mind with God's Word proclaimed to you, return here and consider these questions.

1. How does the phrase "if God is for us" affect your heart? Why?
2. What are the different ways in 31-34 that Paul indicates we aren't condemned? In what ways do you allow yourself to "be condemned"?
3. How do the "all things" in v 32 relate to the "all things" in 8:28?
4. What causes you to feel separated from the love of God? Is there something in this text, or is it something different? How are you able to overcome that falsehood with the gospel?
5. What do you need to believe, feel or do in response to "these things"?
