

Sermon Series: Named By God

Loved by God

Genesis 29:15-35

Sermon Outline

- I. Lookin' for love
- II. Love is a battlefield
- III. I want to know what love is

Pre-Sermon Questions

1. When you are deeply loved, how does it make you feel and think?
2. What does love do to your identity?

Post-Sermon Questions

1. What's your reaction to this story in Genesis 29? Is there anyone or anything you can identify with?
2. Identify some common areas where we seek love to satisfy our souls, outside of God's love? Which of those areas do you struggle with?
3. Why don't we think about the natural and far-reaching consequences of sin? When we seek deep love in the wrong things, what are the consequences on our identity?
4. Describe Leah's struggles in her marriage and through having children. In what ways can you relate to her desire to earn approval and love?
5. How does the love of God and the work of Jesus Christ, the lion of Judah, flip the script on Leah's search for love (and ours)? How does the true Bridegroom change our identity?
6. If God's love changes everything, how can you keep His love front and center in your life every day?
